Report by the Board	Ashokji talked about the temple goals – Chairperson	keeping the temple clean, providing a peaceful place for worship to the community and making the temple financially viable.
	He gave information about various projects completed during the year 2015 – Basement leak, Gopuram leak, Shastriji's house renovation, Seeta Ram Kutir to name a few.
	He thanked the community for great support and participation.
	He informed that the temple debt has been reduced by 40% over the last 4 years. The current debt is around $275,000/-
	He also communicated that the board highly appreciate good ideas from the community and encouraged the community members to serve on the board.

Questions from the attendees	Ms. Saroj Kapurji asked a question about putting donor's name on the plaque board, is it necessary to spend money on that. Ashokji responded to the concern explaining that it doesn't cost much and serves as a token of appreciation to the community members who donate and helps keeping the temple financially viable. Sarojji thanked the board for good committed work.
	Jaglanji requested temple board to commit $500- donation per annum to Food bank. Other attendees explained that it's the temple community that donates to the Food Bank so there is no need for donating money from the temple funds.

Jaglanji requested the board members to attend Havan, New Year Prayer and food bank activities. Board members will try their best.
Board appreciated Jaglanji's great work.
Mr Subhash Sharmaji asked a question	The constitution committee will about external audit – should there be an	take action on getting the external audit of temple finances?	necessary changes done to the Ashokji explained that a good research	constitution by following the necessary to have an external audit which costs around 5000 dollars plus. An external audit is not a legal requirement for religious non-profit organizations.

Temple Board follows established procedures and has multiple checks in place to avoid any fraud. A member from the community with accounting knowledge volunteers to perform review of the accounts.
All the attendees agreed to the approach.
The current constitution wording needs to be amended to change from audit to review.
Mr Sanjeev Dagli asked a question about having a documentation of established procedures which can be useful for the new board members.
Manasi responded that such document is already in place and is available on the temple website. This document will be kept up to date as new procedures, guidelines are developed.
